Ottawa, Ontario – Following the death of the Right Honourable Roméo LeBlanc on June 24, 2009, Tilly O'Neill Gordon, MP for Miramichi, wanted to highlight the contributions of Mr. Leblanc, an Acadian she deeply respected. On behalf of everyone in the riding of Miramichi, Ms. O'Neill Gordon offers her condolences to the Leblanc family.

"The loss of this great New Brunswicker and Canadian is a sad event," added O'Neill Gordon.

"In addition to his official role and responsibilities as Governor General, Mr. LeBlanc took up many personal causes while focusing on volunteering, teaching Canadian history, Aboriginal peoples and the Canadian Forces' peacekeeping efforts, all causes I believe in," concluded O'Neill Gordon.
